GLAMOUR RETURNS

After seasons of pared-back dressing, glamour is back in full force. Crystals, statement earrings and high-shine accessories are made to be piled on, while a sharp black blazer keeps it all grounded. The rule? Don't stop at one.

The killer heel is also back – and she's bringing the drama.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE STORE AT PACIFIC FAIR AND WHY?

I'm a diehard fan of Incu. I have a lot of respect for brothers Brian and Vini who founded the business – and unsurprisingly they both have exceptional style! I can't help myself, every time I'm in the vicinity of an Incu I am compelled to go in and buy something!

FOR SOMEONE VISITING LUNE AT PACIFIC FAIR FOR THE VERY FIRST TIME, WHAT DO YOU TELL THEM TO ORDER?

For first time visitors to Lune, I would recommend having a traditional croissant. Many people don't know but we bake fresh throughout the day and having a croissant that's fresh out of the oven is truly one of life's great simple pleasures.

FOUNDER FAVES

From aerospace engineer to owner of the renowned croissanterie Lune, now at Pacific Fair, Kate Reid has always been ahead of the curve. We find out what she's currently coveting.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE CLOTHING PIECE THIS SPRING/SUMMER?

I don't know yet because it's well and truly still winter in Melbourne and I haven't even started to think about my spring wardrobe! But when the weather does start to warm up, I'm probably going to hunt down a pair of capri pants (never thought I'd say those words post 2006 but apparently fashion has gone full circle once again). In the meantime, I'm loving the oversized everything look. My current favourite fit is a boxy matching set denim jacket and pants from Damon Madder. I'd describe it as 'elevated Canadian Tuxedo cool' (also purchased from Incu – of course!).

WHAT IS THE ONE BEAUTY PRODUCT YOU CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT RIGHT NOW?

I am obsessed with Mecca's Bright Eyed eye masks. This is a bit embarrassing to admit, but every morning I put on a pair before going out for a walk with my dog. I'm sure people think I look weird, but they feel so nice in the cold morning air and I'm convinced they make me look 10 years younger haha!

WHAT ARE YOU CURRENTLY READING?

I've just finished reading Signs of Damage by Australian author Diana Reid, and simultaneously I've been listening to Lena Dunham's new memoir, Famesick (which is a must read if you are a millennial who's followed pop culture over the last 15 years).

7

9

BARELY-THERE BEAUTY, SUBTLE SWEEPS OF COLOUR, AND A NATURALLY LUMINOUS FINISH ARE THE SECRET INGREDIENTS FOR A WARM-WEATHER GLOW.

3

THIS SEASON, YOUR SUMMER GLOW SHOULD COME FROM SUBTLE SPF SKIN TINTS AND HYDRATING SERUMS.

4

5

For the finishing touch that leaves a lasting impression, opt for scents as light as your summer frocks.

8

Relaxed tailoring sets the pace for spring and summer. Lightweight trousers, breathable shirts and an easy neutral palette keep things polished without feeling overdressed.

Finish with the details. A leather loafer, timeless sunglasses and a good bag bring a sharper edge to laid-back warm-weather dressing.

Think great tailoring, quality shoes and accessories that bring polish and personality – because when you know what works, the finishing touches make all the difference.
